

Asia pacific regional arbitration group

Nguyen Khanh Ngoc

60Tran Phu St. Hanoi, Vietnam

(84)- 4- 7334302 Email: khanhngocn@yahoo.com

Qualifications

Bachelor of Laws (Russia)

Master of Laws (U.S.)

Appointments

Deputy Director, International Law Dept. Ministry of Justice

Senior Legal Expert

Arbitrator, Vietnam International Arbitration Center

Arbitration Experience

Ngoc has sat on a number of arbitration cases that involve foreign parties under the arbitration rules of Vietnam International Arbitration Center. Those cases relate mainly to general commercial and business transactions and contracts.

Career

Ministry of Justice

Department of International Law: Deputy Director of the Department of International Law: in charge of international legal matters relating to Vietnam's international economic integration, including resolutions of economic and commercial disputes by international arbitration or foreign tribunals and courts.

Performed legal works relating to international trade law, including legal issues in WTO, APEC, ASEM, ASEAN, other bilateral trade and economic agreements.

Researched and lectured various legal topics of international law in general and of international trade law in particular, such as US trade law, international trade remedies, international trade dispute resolution.

Clerkship of one year in the Hai Ba Trung District Court, Hanoi, Vietnam.

Areas of Expertise

General commercial and trade matters.

Languages used: Vietnamese (native), English and Russian